BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Forwards for publication in 3 issues of the Madras Mail, the Times of India, the Pioneer, the Daily Post, & the Statesman, a notice regarding the sale of certain horses of the Kunigal Stud Farm.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

17

From the Notice, it is seen that 6 Kunigal Stud bred horses are advertised for sale on the 5th June 1915, and that option is given for the purchase of these horses before that date for upset prices noted against each. It is not however known whether sanction has been obtained for selling them at upset prices. The Military Section may be consulted.

Subd for orders, with a draft forwarding the notice for pubn.

GA 15.5.15 1) Draft approved. The matter may however be shown to Military Section before issue for their taking further needful action if any is necessary.

Hem 15/5/15

To the Mil. Section.

GA 15/5/15 3) It is submitted that neither special sanction for these horses selling at upset prices has been obtained nor is the office aware of the existance of a general order authorising such sales.

The horses in question being racers it is likely that they would fetch higher prices than those fixed, particularly at the present time.

Sales other than by public auction cannot it seems be considered as being regular.
